Chapter 1 THE BEGINNINGS OF GOVERNMENT IN THE UNITED STATES

The story of American government starts deep into the past. Our system of government did not suddenly spring into being as it the work of some brilliant mind's hand. Nor was it pulled out of thin air by the

The Colonial Period

Our English Heritage
The French, Spanish, Dutch, Norwegian, and other Europeans settled in parts of what was to become the United States. But it was the English who came to the largest numbers. And it was the English who came to establish the thirteen colonies that stretched for 2,000 miles along the Atlantic seaboard.

These early pioneers who cleared the wilderness and fought off the Indians led to back and forth with the English in the New World. But their came here in search of greater freedom.

Founding Fathers of Philadelphia in the summer of 1787. History is the development of ideas. Some leaders of the American Revolution thought that we should have a new form of government. We shall now review the early history of these beginnings.

SCENES OF WORK

Early Americans led by Ben Franklin in business, in their thought and action. This was called "government by order by law." The beginning of our government today.

of which are to be found today—country, territory, property, commerce, and justice of the peace, for example. And all of these were well known to England long before the first Englishmen ever landed in America.

1.1. The First Concept of Limited Government and Civil Liberties
They brought with them, too, the two ideas of limited government and civil liberties. That is, their government is limited by what is called the word, "probably" that it is limited by the same that each man has certain rights that government cannot injure or take away. These great principles of freedom were proclaimed in such historic English documents as the Magna Carta in 1215, the Petition of Right in 1628, and the Bill of Rights and the Act of Toleration of 1689.

1.2. The Concept of Representative Government
A third really important concept brought to America in English ships was that of representative government. For centuries there had been developing in England the Ruth.

You asked for a page, here goes. May 18th the last day for you Seniors, what will you do now? Freedom and not any old teachers around to bore you, we'll miss all of you next year. Are you planning on having a nice snack? Hope so, be sure to be good. It's been nice having you in classes at home & here. You will do all right in dining Ruth, guess I feel right now you only need practice and this you'll get this summer most likely. Most of the time you girls never had me too excited. Are you working this summer? Have fun and don't sunburn too much. If you Seniors ever get back around here, be sure and drop by & visit a while. It's always nice to see you back. Best wishes Ruth in the future, find a job you enjoy and stay with it. Many things in life are obtained simply by enjoying the work of getting them. I don't know if you plan to attend college, try it, you would have a lot of fun as well as getting an education.

Sincerely
Coach Emerson

Dear Ruthie,
Hi, Howdy, Hello, Howdy - do, Good morning, Good Afternoon, Goodnight, Goodday, something like that. Choose one and that's the one I'll use. Guess what, I wrote to Ruthie the other day about three or four weeks ago and she hasn't written back yet. She probably won't until after school out. How do you like our Government class now a days? I like it just fine. Know something? Alpha must have injured Delta's M.A.
Vickie Snow when she hit them yesterday. Vickie wasn't here today. Margaret said she must be hurt bad enough that she won't come back anymore.
Get the message? (P) Ruthie my mind is going back to the time Margaret and I spent the night with you. We sat on the middle of the floor while all the lights were out. We had a flashlight Remember? I also remember the other times.
Spent with you. Remember the day we were riding the bicycles and got ~~out~~ in the rain? We were supposed to go to a track meet that day but didn't. Remember that first year we had Rediker for our English teacher? I do. That's one year I'll never forget as long as I live. He snuffed the living day lights out of me.
Remember when he sent us to the Office. Ruth, if you'd had kept your mouth shut, you wouldn't have gotten it. You and Margaret thought it was funny but I didn't. I didn't think he'd tell us to leave but he fooled us. I scared red. I'll never forget that day.
NEVER! I'm surprised he hasn't done it again this year. Of course we're little angels since our sophomore year. We aren't little devils no more.
But your "Bootties Drammie" got on in that same year. Our friendship came to an end. I started it though and I've regretted it ever since. We didn't have much excitement during our Junior year, except one thing. Just about every girl in high school read Peyton Place! That was an exciting book. You were the first one to read it I think. Our friends who renewed that year and I am very happy that it did. Well, it's finally our last year together.
School together. We're the last of our class.
I hope we always will be. I'm not kidding Ruth. I've really enjoyed having you as a friend all through high school. And if I have any way about it we will always remain friends. Good luck to a good friend. Love Zeta (Sweetie)
